

Come learn about a discussion circle on

DISCOVERING A SENSE OF PLACE

In this self-facilitated discussion circle you will have the opportunity to develop a deeper relationship with your place in the company of 8-12 like-minded people. You'll read provocative excerpts and discuss open-ended questions on the topics below, intended to expand and enrich your consciousness of where you live. Come attend this introductory meeting to learn more and to decide if you wish to join this circle. Bring your calendar!

Topics Covered:

1. A sense of Place
2. Responsibility to Place
3. Knowing your Bioregion
4. Living in Place
5. Mapping your Place
6. Building local community
7. Empowerment
8. Wrap-up

DATE:

TIME:

LOCATION:

CONTACT:

The discussion guides, published by the Northwest Earth Institute, will be ordered at this meeting (cost: $20 + s/h). You may share a guide with someone else. If you cannot attend but are interested in joining this circle, please let the contact person above know. To join another discussion circle, contact us at circles@simplicity-matters.org or call Lena at 301-432-8721.

More info: www.simplicity-matters.org/info.